

Press Release: VII Youth Internet Governance Forum Ukraine: Ukrainian Youth and Digital Resilience in Times of War

Press Release prepared on: 14/11/2024

VII Youth Internet Governance Forum (Youth IGF) Ukraine will take place online on 27 November 2024. This year's theme, "Ukrainian Youth and Digital Resilience in Times of War," underscores the vital role of young people in navigating the digital landscape amid ongoing war.

About the Youth IGF

The Youth IGF is a global platform that empowers young people to engage in internet governance discussions and shape the future of the internet. As a part of the global Internet Governance Forum (IGF) initiative, the Youth IGF provides a space for young individuals to share their perspectives, develop skills, and collaborate with peers from around the world.

Youth IGF Ukraine

As part of the global IGF initiative, Youth IGF Ukraine is a dedicated initiative that empowers Ukrainian youth to actively participate in internet governance discussions and policy development. First organized in 2017, Youth IGF Ukraine has consistently provided a space for young people to express their views, meet experts in digital field, and create projects with like-minded individuals.

VII Youth IGF Ukraine: A Focus on Digital Resilience

VII Youth IGF Ukraine will feature a day full of panel discussions and workshops. The event will explore how Ukrainian youth are leveraging digital tools to:

- Foster resilience: information warfare and countering disinformation.
- Strengthen solidarity: building communities and advocating for change.
- Transform obstacles into opportunities: innovations and international prospectives.

Who Should Attend

Youth IGF Ukraine welcomes Ukrainian youth aged 15-35, including high school and university students, recent graduates, and young professionals with an interest in internet governance and technology.
